Contemplating Your Post-Grad Market Value?

Spend a day at the CBOE’s College Cram Session

Cram Session
December 29, 2011

In this tough economy your success in the job market depends on how diversified you are. Enhance your knowledge of the trading industry that can help give you that ‘uptick’ in value to stand out in a crowd.

The Cram Session will:
• Bridge the gap between theory and practice in investing
• Introduce algorithmic trading systems and strategies
• Discuss career paths in the investing and trading industry
• Highlight what skills are necessary to succeed in trading
• Finish the day with a simulated mock trading session
